

Water & Wellbeing... making the places we live more liveable

CRC for Water Sensitive Cities

23rd July 2018

10:00-12:00 followed by networking

Venue

AUDRC - Level 2, 1002 Hay Street, Perth

DRAFT AGENDA

Item	Time	Topic	Who	organisation
1.	10:00 am (5 mins)	Welcome	Mike Mouritz	CRC Water Sensitive Cities
2.	(15 mins)	Nyoongar social and cultural values <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Nyoongar spiritual connection to water - Dreaming and water stories 	Sandra Harben	University of WA
3.	(15 mins)	The Swan river since colonisation and its future role as a shaper of the city	Julian Bolleter	Australian Urban Development Research Centre
4.	(15 mins)	Water Sensitive design and its impacts on urban heat and heat wave related mortality.	Emma Yuen	CRC Water Sensitive Cities Board
5.	(15 mins)	Social benefits of street verges	Natasha Pauli	University of WA
6.	(15 mins)	Social capital and gardens	Josh Byrne	Josh Byrne and Associates
7.	(15 mins)	Economic benefits of WSUD/IWM <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Health costs due to poor urban design - Economic benefits of WSUD 	Sayed Iftexhar	University of WA
8.	11:30 am	Q and A / discussion	Mike Mouritz and Emma Yuen	CRC Water Sensitive Cities
9.	11:50	Morning tea and networking

For more information contact:

Emma Yuen, CRC Water Sensitive Cities, E: emma.yuen@uwa.edu.au M: 044 888 9318